INTRODUCTION

The United Daughters of the Confederacy Records are centered around the activities of the organization from its creation in 1894 to 1988. The records consist of minutes, chapter scrapbooks, an essay contest, photographs, correspondence, and membership applications. Of special interest are the Confederate Bivouac and confederate Soldiers Home registers.

An item of particular note is the Record of Ex-Confederate Soldiers and Sailors, members of the confederate Relief and Historical Association of Memphis volume (see Oversize Volumes number 8) that contains detailed information on Confederate veterans including in many instances, a photograph or printed image of the veteran. Information recorded on the veterans include name, rank, company, regiment, brigade, division, army, enlistment date, commission, discharge date, parole, and remarks. sometimes a printed obituary or other published item is pasted in related to a particular veteran.

The collection consists of 9.88 cubic feet of shelf space, and numbers approximately 9000 items. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the collection may be made for individual or scholarly use.
